

Agreement for Pupils

I will try my best to:

- try my hardest with my work
- come to school regularly, on time with what I need for the day
- follow the Golden Rules and behave well
- be polite, kind and helpful to all children and adults
- take responsibility for the things that I do
- tell someone if I am worried or upset about something
- ask for help if I need it

Our Golden Rules

- Try your best, be positive and persevere
- Be kind, honest and treat others how you would want to be treated
- Listen to the adults in school and do as you are asked first time
- Be considerate to others' learning

Buxton Junior School Home School Agreement

At Buxton Junior School , we believe that children's happiness, education and safety are based on good partnerships between school , the children and parents & carers.

We all have a part to play in this success and so ask you to read and sign our home-school agreement with your child.

Agreement for School

The school will do its best to:

- provide a safe and happy environment where all children can thrive
- ensure that children receive a rich and diverse breadth of experiences through an engaging, balanced and inclusive curriculum
- act in the best interests of children at all times
- promote high standards of progress, achievement and behaviour
- encourage children to do their best at all times

- provide regular information about school events and news
- promote continued learning at home by setting appropriate homework and reading
- work with parents to address any concerns regarding behaviour, punctuality or attendance
- work alongside other agencies to effectively safeguard children and staff and to act in the best interests of the wider community
- work alongside the wider community to benefit all members of the school .

Agreement for Parents & Carers

To help my child at school, I will do my best to:

- ensure my child attends school every day and inform the school promptly of any absence
- ensure my child arrives at school on time, ready to learn, wearing the correct uniform and is collected on time
- be a positive role model and encourage my child to work hard and enjoy learning at school and at home
- support my child by helping with reading at home and homework
- act in the best interests of the school community at all times
- promote inclusion, tolerance and respect for every member of our school community
- attend consultation evenings for parents
- read any communication from school and respond promptly to requests
- let the school know if there are any problems that may affect my child's learning
- work with school to address any concerns regarding behaviour
- discuss any problems I may have directly with school and refrain from using social media sites to discuss matters regarding the school and its community, whether positive or negative
- inform school immediately of any changes to contact details
